

ONE BILLION DOLLARS GOES A LONG DISTANCE

Elliot Boardman Tells Chamber of Commerce Members and Their Guests. Gives Outlook for 1942.

One billion dollars will go a long way, Elliot Boardman of the Federal Reserve Bank told members of the Chamber of Commerce and their guests from Arlington Service clubs, gathered Monday evening at the Arlington Gas Light Company's auditorium for dinner and meeting. If, said Mr. Boardman, one billion dollar bills packed tight as they come from the bank, were laid out, edges up, along the road to Worcester, they would reach beyond that city. Stacked skyward, the pile would be fifty-three miles high.

It is fifty-six billion that the government is going to spend and Mr. Boardman believes that this year will see defense savings stamps or bonds in pay envelopes in place of some of the cash. The sale of stamps and bonds has been large, but not large enough.

Mr. Boardman's topic was "Business Outlook for 1942." He believes there will be an upturn in total production this year but not so rapid as during the last twelve months. There will be a reduction of all products but those for defense. Living cost he thinks, will be higher, as will the tax burden.

Robbins Farm Case Continued Two Weeks

The case in which Mrs. May B. Robbins has petitioned the Middlesex Superior Court to stop the sale of the Robbins farm by her husband, Nathan Robbins, to the town of Arlington came up in Middlesex Court Monday morning and on agreement of counsel was continued to the twenty-seventh.

Mrs. Robbins asks that her husband and the town authorities be enjoined from proceeding with the proposed sale and purchase and that the mental competency of her husband be determined.

At the special Town Meeting in December the town voted to buy the land for $33,812.50—its valuation under the law of eminent domain—for park and playground purposes.

Since no town counsel has yet been appointed to succeed Paul M. White, the Park Department, under whose jurisdiction the matter comes, was represented by Addison Pike, acting counsel, who is Winchester town counsel and who through association with Mr. White became familiar with Arlington town affairs.

APPOINT TWO TO HELP IN VICTORY BOOK CAMPAIGN

The Trustees of the Robbins Library have appointed two of their number—Miss M. Helen Teele and Mrs. Walter J. Vaughn—as assistants to the librarian, Mrs. Lucinda F. Spofford, in the Victory Book Campaign, whose goal is the collection of ten million books for the use of men in the service.

In the campaign, which began on Monday, the American Library Association, the Red Cross and the United Service Organizations are joining. Books may be left at the Robbins Library, the Dallin Branch at the Heights or the East Arlington Branch. At the library they will be sorted, repaired if necessary, and shipped.

The books that are particularly wanted are as follows: non-fiction—applied psychology, arithmetic, aviation, business and salesmanship, English grammar and simple readers for illiterates, crime and the F. B. I. police systems and finger printing, algebra, geometry, trigonometry, calculus and tables of logarithms (mathematics are needed in the study of ballistics and for many promotional examinations).

Change Meeting Place Of Air Raid Wardens

George H. Greim, Arlington's chief air raid warden, announces that all wardens will meet in the assembly hall, old section of Senior High School for their regular Monday evening meetings of January 19 and 26. Because of this change in the place of meeting, all district meetings scheduled for those dates will be cancelled. The wardens will receive instructions explaining their duties as related to fire, police, and public utilities, with the talks being given by authorized leaders of each of these services. Meetings start at 7:30 p. m.

Another important announcement, issued by the Arlington Committee on Public Safety, requests that all those attending First Aid classes tonight (Thursday) in the George H. Lowe Auditorium, Senior High School, dress in old clothes and bring a blanket with them. Tonight's instruction will necessitate floor work. All of these classes are scheduled for 8 p. m.

Improvements Felt In All Town Says President Hunter

The annual meeting of the Arlington Heights Improvement Association was held at the Brackett School Hall last Monday night with over 150 members and friends present.

President Edward H. Hunter presided, and in his welcoming address, called attention to the fact that the organization had now flourished for the fifth consecutive year and that the accomplishments in civic improvements were felt throughout the town.

L. Harry Howe, secretary, and Joseph F. Beecy, treasurer, rendered their annual reports to the members. A strong financial condition was referred to in both reports.

DOGS RESTRAINED FOR TWO MONTHS

The Board of Selectmen at the request of the Board of Health, have ordered all dogs who have not been inoculated for rabies within ten months be restrained for two months from January 19th to March 19th.

The Board of Health was advised of the increase of animal rabies in the section north of Boston. A Burlington dog, it is reported, was afflicted with the disease and ran through Woburn and Lexington, biting several dogs. The heads of twelve or thirteen of those that were bitten were examined and rabies found. One dog that was bitten is said still to be at large. It was suggested by the Board of Health that dogs be restrained as long as cases occur in territory contiguous to Arlington.

Plan Testimonial To Fred Ostergren

A testimonial and dinner is to be tendered to Fred Ostergren, high school football and baseball coach, on Saturday evening, February 7th, at the Town Hall.

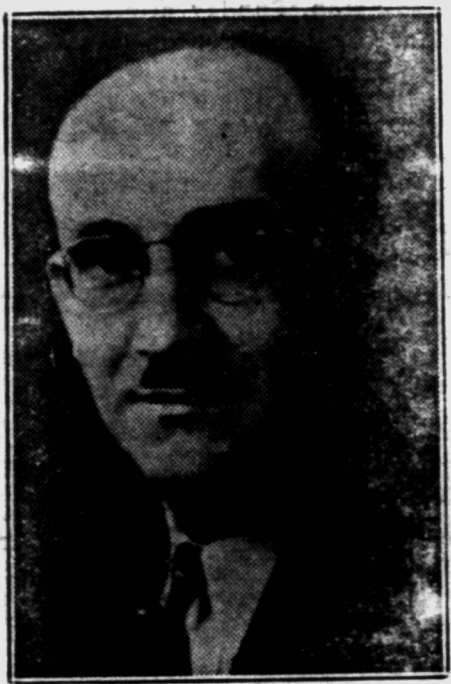

A group of public spirited citizens and several former high school athletes, cognizant of the great part "Osty" has played in putting Arlington High up with the topnotch teams of the state in football and baseball, and keeping it there, and also of the assistance and encouragement he has extended to dozens of his former "boys", are sponsoring this affair.

Several meetings of this group have been held, sub-committees have been formed, tickets printed and final arrangements have been made. The women folk are included.

It is up to us, the sports fans of Arlington, to show our appreciation of "Osty" by making this the biggest affair of the kind ever held in Arlington.

Books Democracy's Best Allies Says Robbins Librarian

"When people are burning books in other parts of the world, we ought to be distributing them with greater vigor; for books are among our best allies in the fight to make democracy work," said Mrs. Lucinda F. Spofford, librarian of the Robbins Library, in her annual report to the Board of Trustees.

The greatest increase in the use of the library was noticed in the reference library. Here there were more requests, particularly for books and magazines that throw light on the war. Some of the questions asked over the telephone were reminiscent of quizzes—"What is the inscription on the Statue of Liberty?" and "What is the meaning of the symbol of the three (Continued on Page 7)

REPORTS SHOW SCOUT YEAR MOST SUCCESSFUL EVER

"For Sachem Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, 1941 was the most successful year in its history, according to reports made at the annual meeting last Saturday afternoon and evening at the Belmont High School. More scouts, cubs and scouters were enrolled during the past year than ever before and Camp Sachem, the summer camp at Antrim, New Hampshire, gave pleasure and health to more boys and for more boy weeks than in any previous season.

For this outstanding growth and meeting of objectives the National Council of Boy Scouts gave the Sachem Council president, Walter W. Head, Acorn Award, which is an honor greatly valued by the Council.

The facts and figures of this growth as given by Scout Executive Henry W. Schreiber, Jr., in his annual report showed a total of 1626 Scouts, a gain over 1940 of 140; 879 Cubs, a gain of 228; and 669 Leaders, 398, bringing the grand total of boys and men enrolled in Scouting in the Sachem Council to (Continued on Page 2)

"You Can Do Your Share to Win War"

"You may not be able to shoulder a gun or work in a war industry, but you can do your share to win the war as a worker in the Arlington campaign of the Greater Boston United War Fund which opens on January 22."

In these words Roscoe O. Elliot, Arlington's Associate Chairman for Residential Solicitations, last night appealed to patriotic citizens, both men and women, to offer their services for the campaign at once. Workers are urgently needed! Headquarters of the campaign have been opened at 675-677 Massachusetts avenue, where offers of service in the campaign will be greatly appreciated. Mr. Elliot, whose home is at 33 Edgemoor road, will be glad to give full information on the need for workers, who may also call the directors of their districts, the numbers of which correspond to those of the town precincts.

RATIONING BOARD RECEIVES BUT ONE REQUEST FOR TIRES

But one application was presented to the Arlington Tire Rationing Board in the week ending January 7 for review.

This was by Philip A. McDonald, 22 Lakehill avenue. He made application for three passenger tires and three tubes. The application for the tires was granted, but the one for the tubes was refused as the condition of the same was not passed upon by the inspector. Mr. McDonald came under eligibility Class C-5—to maintain mail service.

The board, whose chairman is Howard E. Cousins, members, Milton Estabrook and Harry J. O'Reilly, with Paul A. Ziegler, administrative secretary, meets regularly evenings at police headquarters at 8 p. m.

No applications will be reviewed unless an inspector has passed upon the condition of the tires, tubes or casings on the vehicle upon which (Continued on Page 3)

The national emergency and its relation to the people of Middlesex County will remain the Number 1 problem of the local association. Members of the association have indicated that they are ready to meet any health problem, particularly tuberculosis, as it might arise during the coming year.

"More than that, however," Mr. Furber said, "we are keeping in mind the necessity of maintaining progress which has been made by the association during the last several years."

HUNDREDS AT PATRIOTIC RALLY OF UNITED WAR FUND

Speakers Emphasize Need for Funds. "Must Adjust to Emergency," Says Monsignor Barry.

Hundreds of Arlington citizens who are organizing with enthusiasm for the United War Fund Campaign which opens on January 22, attended a patriotic rally in the auditorium of the Senior High School on Monday evening to prepare for the challenge of 1942—the generous and unstinted support of Arlington for the benefit of the Community Fund social agencies, the Red Cross and the United Service Organizations which will benefit by the United War Fund.

Introduced by Arthur W. Sampson, general chairman of the campaign in Arlington, Harold A. Cahalin, president of the Arlington Community Chest, told the workers that he was inspired by the demonstration of the sincerity of purpose among community leaders working in the interests of the fund and predicted that Arlington would contribute its full quota.

Town Topic

—The Ways and Means Committee of the Bradshaw-Friendly Union met Wednesday morning at the home of the president, Mrs. Carroll Beers, 32 Glen avenue. Mrs. Ralph Day was made chairman of the committee and plans for the year were outlined. Coffee and doughnuts were served by the hostess.

Urge Support of United War Fund

This year the United War Fund of Greater Boston replaces the Community Fund of yesterday and comes before the public seeking $7,600,000; a new high to meet the new needs of a community whose country has gone to war.

In addition to the medical service, hospitalization and health dispersed by the results of past drives, the new United War Fund will include the appeals of the three other great morale-building organizations of our community, the American Red Cross, the Soldiers' and Sailors' Committee, and the United Service Organizations.

Because the increase is sharp and the amount large, it is the duty of each individual to give willingly and generously, doubling and tripling pledges of normal times, whenever possible. We, therefore, urge that the people of Arlington cooperate to the fullest with the Campaign from January 22 to February 11, each one giving a total pledge that will represent his full share toward this all-important appeal. We are confident that Arlington will meet this challenge.

PAXINOU, GREEK STAR IN "HEDDA GABLER" COMING TO COLONIAL

The Colonial Theatre will be the centre of unprecedented theatrical interest on Monday, January 19th, when Luther Greene rings up the curtain on the American debut in English of Greece's foremost actress, Katina Paxinou, in a revival of Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler". Star of the Theatre Royale, Athens, where European playgoers for ten years flocked to pay her homage, Mme. Paxinou comes to the United States on the heels of new triumphs scored in London last spring. Presented by Charles B. Cochran in "Ghosts", she was acclaimed by the British press as "one of the truly great stage artists of the 20th Century."

Luther Greene, who is sponsoring as well as directing Mme. Paxinou in "Hedda Gabler", has surrounded his star with a top-flight cast of mimics, including Ralph Forbes, Karen Morley, Cecil Humphreys, Margaret Wycherly, Henry Daniell and Octavia Kenmore. The modern adaptation of this Ibsen classic was made by Ethel Borden and Mary Cass Canfield. The setting was designed by Paul Morrison. Although word of Mme Paxinou's artistry has been reaching the ears of American producers for many years, all efforts to bring her to this country heretofore have been unavailing. "If I come to America," she promised, "I will come when I can act in English." The war, as a matter of record, hastened her debut here. She was appearing with her company in her native tongue in London when the invasion of Greece by German and Italian hordes veritably left her stranded. The critics there had already welcomed her with high adjectival praise for her portrayals in both "Elektra" and "Macbeth". Impresario Cochran came to the rescue with an offer for her to appear in English in Ibsen's "Ghosts". Mme Paxinou accepted and as a result won additional honors. "I have always wanted to play in America," Mme. Paxinou declared upon her arrival here. "I hope Americans will like me as much as I like and admire them."

At a recent candlelight tea, Mr. and Mrs. James A. White of 17 Edward street, Belmont, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Anne White, to Ensign J. Gregory Prout, son of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Prout of 16 Iroquois road.

Good Year for Savings Bank Life Insurance

Dividends totaling more than $1,000,000 will be paid in 1942 on life insurance policies issued by Savings Banks in Massachusetts. It has been announced by Clyde S. Casady, executive secretary of the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council. The same basic scale will be used as 1941 and, whereas seven banks paid less than the basic scale last year, only four of the present 29 issuing banks will pay lesser rates of dividends in 1942. Premium rates will remain unchanged during 1942.

"Results of operations of the life insurance departments of the savings banks in the fiscal year which ended October 31, 1941, were highly satisfactory," Mr. Casady observes. "Insurance in force reached a new high of $209,080,000, represented by 232,000 policies. Mortality ratio was less than 30 per cent of expected, based on the standard mortality tables; and operating expenses were at the lowest level reached in the last five years. Net interest earnings, after payment of investment expenses, amounted to 3.25 per cent.

"In view of present uncertain conditions, we are pleased to report that surplus funds were substantially increased, and for the system as a whole now amount to 8.75 per cent of legal reserves compared with 8.31 per cent at the close of the previous fiscal year."

Effective December 27, 1941, newly issued Savings Bank Life Insurance policies carry a war risk exclusion rider. This does not affect policies previously outstanding, and except for certain exclusions in connection with airplanes it does not affect civilians in the United States or Canada, even though they may be engaged in civilian defense duties, such as air raid wardens, auxiliary police or firemen, members of rescue and Red Cross first-aid units and other services. No restriction is made on airplane travel in the United States or Canada, as a fare-paying passenger on a regular airline. In connection with the war risk exclusion on members of the armed services, it is pointed out that special insurance up to $10,000 is provided by the government in such cases, at a very low rate.

Edward C. Keating, assistant treasurer of the Wilsey Savings Bank, of Boston, has been elected treasurer of the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council, succeeding the late Nelson J. Bowers, former treasurer of the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank.

Scouters Hold Successful Old Time Barn Dance

A regular old time barn dance was sponsored by the Men's Troop Committee and the Mothers' Auxiliary to Troop 5, Boy Scouts, at Kelsey's Ranch, Lexington, last Friday. It was one of the most successful parties this group has ever held. Much of the success was due to the peppy music and additional entertainment and singing supplied by the orchestra of J. Harry Law of 14 Wyman street. This orchestra fairly outdid itself in making all who attended have a grand time.

One of the features was singing by a barber shop quartet composed of Paul Wilson, Howard Cotton, William Hanlon and Emilie Vadeboncoeur. Refreshments were served by the Mothers' auxiliary.

Mrs. Spence President Of Pro Arte Symphony

placed in nomination four directors to serve for the next three years. These were William F. McClellan, Joseph F. Beecy, Joseph L. Sliney and Nino P. Zapponi and their election was unanimous.

Following the election, Mr. Durkin gave a brief but stirring talk on the "War Effort of the Association" and a resolution presented by him was adopted. It was that the association offer the facilities and manpower of the organization to the Town of Arlington through the Board of Selectmen, said Board to be notified by a letter from the secretary of the association.

The Women's Auxiliary held their first annual meeting immediately following adjournment of the main body of the organization, with President Mrs. David L. Strong presiding. Mrs. Strong, Mrs. James C. Doyle, secretary, and Mrs. C. E. Davis, treasurer, rendered annual reports covering all phases of the activities of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Doyle reported that in the first year, the membership had grown to sixty members to augment the parent body of nearly 200.

Mrs. V. Wynot placed in nomination the names of Mrs. James C. Doyle, Mrs. Sarah Deasy, Mrs. Margaret Beecy and Mrs. Rose Kinney for the three year term as directors of the auxiliary and they were unanimously elected.

Following the business meeting, Joseph Dente, chairman of entertainment, took over the meeting with an inspiring address on Americanism, followed by the salute to the flag by all present. He then introduced a chalk talk artist who entertained for a half hour and was followed by two hours of pictures of the Thaw expedition through India. Locke P. T. A. Fathers Put on Fine Program

Last Thursday the fathers of the Locke P. T. A. presented a most enjoyable evening to all who came out on that bitter cold night. There was a large number of fathers among those present, many of whom visited the teachers in their rooms before the opening of the meeting.

After the business meeting had been conducted by the president, Mrs. Carl Ockerbloom, she introduced Wm. Merz, one of the fathers, and turned the remainder of the evening over to him. He had prepared a most interesting and enjoyable program, for which he deserves a great deal of credit.

He first introduced Jules Burns of the Massachusetts Committee of Public Safety, who gave a most enlightening talk on "Civilian Defense."

This was followed by a splendid entertainment furnished by Spud Towse, comedian, accompanied at the piano by Harold Curry, and by Stephen Miles, another comedian.

Mr. Merz then introduced Irving Barbour of Melrose, who spoke on "Our Responsibilities as Citizens and Parents."

Delicious refreshments were served by the fathers at the close of the evening. The attendance banner was won by Miss Anderson's room.

Maynard Hutchinson, general chairman of the Greater Boston United War Fund, was the guest of honor and principal speaker at the rally. He emphasized the great need for funds this year as the country prepares to defend the freedom of democracy in the most ruthless war in history. Speaking of the work of the United Service Organizations, he stressed the obligation of every citizen to do everything humanly possible to provide centers of recreation for our men in the service. Through these centers, he added, many of the human problems that trouble men far from home are solved through the advice and assistance of leaders trained in this work. Citing the suffering caused by temporary dislocations in employment due to changes in industry from peaceful pursuits to war production, he described the needs of destitute families and the constructive service of the social agencies which are members of the United War Fund.

Charles C. Cabot, chairman of the Metropolitan Division of the United War Fund, suggested it as a service of tremendous significance for those who are anxious to help win the war for America. Taking advantage of the lessons learned in the first World War, he explained that six great agencies interested in the welfare of men in the service have joined under the United Service Organizations, which not only assures efficient but economical application of funds for the comfort and happiness of our soldiers and sailors. The army and the navy are building the recreation centers and the United Service Organizations will operate them.

Both Mr. Hutchinson and Mr. Cabot stressed the importance of the work of the Red Cross, now a member of the United War Fund, in peace and in war. They cited numerous examples of assistance to soldiers and to families in poverty and illness.

Speaking as a member of the Board of Directors of the United War Fund and its Executive Committee, Monsignor Robert P. Barry, Head of the Charitable Catholic Bureau, warned the citizens that in time of war business cannot go on as usual. "We must learn," he said, "to adjust our lives to this great emergency and not make the mistake of trying to adjust the emergency to our lives."

The program of the rally included music by the American Legion Band of Post 39, under the direction of A. Cannata. The Arlington workers for the campaign also had an opportunity to see the new United War Fund motion picture illustrating every aspect of the work carried on by its member agencies. The flag was escorted to the platform by a color guard composed of members of Post 39 of the American Legion and the Red Cross flag was escorted by women of the Arlington Chapter. Miriam Hendrick Cahalin presented an amusing characterization of a mythical wife explaining to her husband with great enthusiasm the importance of working for the United War Fund. In the subtle humor of her monologue, Mrs. Cahalin injected suggestions for her audience.

Among the distinguished guests on the platform were Mr. Cahalin, Joseph Peterson, commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars; John L. Delay, state vice-commander of the American Legion; Victor W. Ellis, commander of Arlington Post 39 of the American Legion; Archie F. Bullock, chief of police; Daniel B. Tierney, chief of the fire department; John Bishop, vice-president of the Arlington Community Chest; Walter L. Chamberlain, chairman of the Civilian Defense Committee; Mrs. Carolyn B. Reed, chairman of the Arlington Red Cross, who is now associated with Mr. Sampson as general vice-chairman; Mrs. William A. Muller, honorary general chairman; the Reverend Matthew J. Flaherty, pastor of St. Agnes' church, and William C. Adams, chairman of the Board of Selectmen.

MONA LOGG holds the New England record for conversational endurance. She's modest about it, though. Says her husband can beat her when he talks fishing or golf—just give him a chance. Between them they really do a job on the telephone.

We telephone people deserve some of the credit, no doubt—the way we've sold people on telephoning, all these years. But now success proves a boomerang... the War program needs so much telephone service that champion talkers are a problem. You see, switchboards can handle only so many conversations at a time—and materials for building switchboards are on the priorities list!

If anyone had told us, a year ago, that we'd ever reach the point of suggesting that people cut down—No, we can't say it, even now! (Or have we?)

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

Concentrating on Defense, particularly during this month, the Junior Woman's Club have planned their meetings to make every member conscious of her duty to help in defense work. At the January fifth meeting, planned by Miss Madeline Donahue, Special Agent G. V. Doherty of the F. B. I. told club members how everyone can assist the F. B. I. in detecting foreign agents and others who are trying to break down civilian morale and retard our defense efforts.

At the next meeting, on January 19, the speaker will be Richard Gerould, prominent Boston attorney, who is well qualified to speak on the topic, "Education for Defense." Miss Mary Carter, education chairman, is in charge of the meeting.

BOMB THE BUGS

"Bomb the bugs," is the advice of Prof. Curtis M. Hilliard, head of the Health Division of the Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety. Prof. Hilliard says that the "sixth column" which civilians must prepare to battle is disease.

"Throwing a bomb at the bugs to thwart their insidious guerilla warfare against the health of a nation, is just as important as throwing bombs at an invader in armored tanks," says Hilliard. "Protection of health is as vital to the nation as the protection of its shores from invasion."

Armies, navies, planes, and all munitions of war are essential, but they are made by civilians. Civilians are a major part of our national defenses. Back of the armed forces we must build a bulwark of defense composed of strong, determined people who continuously, efficiently and cheerfully pursue their daily activities. This requires healthy bodies and resolute nerves. This is a war of wills; a war of the spirit of man.

What are some of the important things that we should know about, and do something about, to defeat this "sixth column"? As in war we may use defensive and offensive tactics. And also, as in war, the offensive methods are often the best. In the offense you don't wait for the enemy; you go out to meet him. Sanitary measures where the microbes are destroyed, or kept away from their would-be victim, are the panzer divisions of the attack against the sixth column. When water is chlorinated or milk pasteurized, it is made safe because the disease germs are killed. If we sneeze into a handkerchief instead of spraying our neighbor with germ-laden droplets, or wash our hands before preparing food, or before eating, the "bugs" can't get into another person's mouth or nose to start new cases of cold or whooping cough.

But all diseases are not caused by germs. In fact, most of the serious and fatal illnesses are due to causes within the body, which, however, may be induced or aggravated by faulty habits. For example, the food that we eat, or don't eat may result in a reduced level of efficiency. We have come to dread such plagues as influenza and infantile paralysis because of their sudden attack and devastating effects. Malnutrition is not like this; it creeps up on one. Since everyone eats three times a day ordinarily, it is not surprising that what we eat is important to our health.

V for victory means victory over any enemy. One of the grimmest enemies is disease. V for victory over disease should be one of our first conquests.

ALL OUT FOR VICTORY

Arlington is all out for victory. Already Arlington citizens have played a gallant part in the war. Already, there are many Arlington boys in the service. Before this year is over many more will have enrolled. They are in the army, the navy, the marines and the air corps.

This enrollment places a heavy obligation upon those of us at home. That we are meeting this obligation is shown by the number who have volunteered for civilian defense, by the increasing numbers taking courses which will prepare them to serve in emergencies and by the many working for the Red Cross and British War Relief. It was further evidenced by the response to the Christmas seal sale and the Red Cross Roll Call.

There are so many ways to help that every one should be able to do something. We can help in our homes by seeing that our families are properly fed, by preventing waste, even just by being cheerful and calm, by keeping our outlook normal. If we are able to do only a little outside our homes, that little will help. Just as the locusts in the old story carried off a barn full of wheat, each taking one grain at a time, so, many workers, each doing a little, can accomplish much.

Just now more workers are needed in the United War Fund campaign which opens next Friday.

The men in the service need the recreation centers which the Fund will operate. Families of men out of work because of the dislocation of industry incident to the war need the help the agencies of the fund give. The Red Cross, important in peace, becomes in time of war a necessity and its need for funds as well as helpers is infinitely increased.

Doubtless every one has planned to contribute to the Fund—that is understood. Perhaps there are some who can also give their time and collect the contributions.

BUY DEFENSE BONDS

We cannot finance the war through taxes alone. Nor can we finance it by selling more and more regular government bonds to the banks. The financial burden that war makes unavoidable must be largely absorbed by the people—by ordinary American men and women in all walks of life. The Defense Bonds and Stamps offer us all, whatever our financial status, the chance to help buy the guns and the planes and the great warships that will eventually destroy our enemies.

Fifty Years Ago This Week

Finance Club Dines.—A majority of our readers are aware that the opening of Addison street, thereby adding to the available building lots of Arlington some twenty of the finest within her borders, was due to the enterprise and courage of a company of young men organized as "Arlington Finance Club." The "good thing" which the purchase of the Gage estate proved to be, individually and collectively, has been referred to in these columns and in view of what the year has brought to the Club we do not wonder that the desire to make the annual meeting a festival found favor with the membership. The meeting was held Tuesday evening, at the Quincy House, in Boston, and besides the Club there were present, Mr. E. Nelson Blake, Wm. H. Tuttle, Esq., Rev. C. H. Watson, Rev. S. C. Bushnell, Mr. C. M. Hall. Mr. C. S. Parker was unable to accept a cordial invitation to be present and speak to the Club.

It may interest our readers to know the membership of this Club, and so we give the names, as follows:—

Henry A. Kidder, Wendell E. Richardson, Harry T. Hornblower, William B. Wood, William K. Cook, Elbert L. Churchill, Walter L. Hill, Fred F. Squire, Walter L. Frost, Edmund W. Noyes, A. Winslow Trow, Myron Taylor, G. Arthur Swan, G. S. Cushman, George T. Freeman, O. W. Whittemore, H. A. Phinney, Edward O. Grover, Robert A. Ware, George G. Allen.

The ice on Spy Pond froze to sufficient thickness to admit of skating on its surface the latter part of last week. This fact attracted a number of skaters to the pond on Sunday, who seized the opportunity to enjoy the sport, although it was hardly a fitting way to observe the Sabbath.

We Are Glad to Help

To the Editor:

Once again the Arlington Advocate has performed service in furthering the Christmas Seal Sale of the Arlington Tuberculosis Committee.

Thirty-four years ago a Philadelphia newspaper, The North American, gave over substantial space in its news columns and a part of its editorial page to help launch the first sale of stamps for anti-tuberculosis work in the United States.

Today hundreds of newspapers in all parts of the country give their earnest support to this cause.

Please accept the deepest gratitude of the Arlington Tuberculosis Committee for the help you have given us. Without it we would not have been able to accomplish much of what we have done.

MARGARET ROBERTS,
Executive Secretary.

A Historical Correction

In a recent Boston Herald one correspondent points out that Napoleon "continued to fight for two years and a half between Moscow and Waterloo." Historically and strategically this is incorrect. It omits entirely the months Napoleon ruled at Elba and it does not take into account that Leipzig (1813), not Waterloo (1815) was the decisive battle, nor that 1814 saw the actual capitulation of Napoleon. The Waterloo campaign was merely a hundred days' "rebellion" by Napoleon against the then New Order in Europe.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Superior Court, Middlesex, ss. In Equity No. 12489
To Thomas P. Culhane and Eva C. Culhane, both of Cambridge in the County of Middlesex; Samuel B. Flashman, of Brookline in the County of Norfolk; Osgood J. Currier, of said Cambridge; Uriel O. MacDonald, of Braintree and John J. Gallagher, Inc., of Quincy, both in the County of Norfolk, defendants, and to all whom it may concern:
John C. Rosenfeld, of Boston in the County of Suffolk, as he is assignee of a certain mortgage, has filed with said court a bill in equity for authority to exercise the power of sale contained in a mortgage of real estate situated on Massachusetts Avenue, Arlington, in said County of Middlesex, given by Thomas P. Culhane to Leo S. Rosenfeld, dated August 23, 1941, recorded in Middlesex South District Deeds, Land Registration Division, as Document #174412 and noted on Certificate of title #48511.

If you are entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 and you object to the foreclosure of said mortgage, you or your attorney should file a written appearance and answer in the office of the clerk of said court at Cambridge on or before the ninth day of February 1942, or you may be forever barred from claiming that a foreclosure sale made under such authority is invalid under said act.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! . . . For with thee is the fountain of life." These words from Psalms 36:7,9 comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, January 18, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be: "Life." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God; but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments" (Matthew 19:16,17).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "Through the magnitude of his human life, he demonstrated the divine Life. Out of the amplitude of his pure affection, he defined Love. With the affluence of Truth, he vanquished error. The world acknowledged not his righteousness, seeing it not; but earth received the harmony his glorified example introduced" (p. 54).

Every man is invited to this breakfast at which the Pastor will speak on the subject, "I Am the Vine." The Deacons of the church will serve the Communion.

Mrs. Frances Fletcher Ennis, contralto, will sing. On next Friday evening the worship service will be in charge of Mrs. L. Curtis Foye, president of the Women's Missionary Society. Dr. Feagan will review one of the outstanding, recent books on the religious world scene. Welcome.

Men's Class to Hold Communion Breakfast

Next Sunday morning at 8:00 o'clock the Men's Class of the First Baptist church will conduct their annual communion breakfast. President Albert S. Communion will be served by the members of the Deacons' Board and the pastor and teacher of the class, Dr. Grady D. Feagan, will conduct the service.

Last Sunday the class was privileged to hear Rev. Henry Hallam Sanderson, from Allston, in a deep reaching address on "The Authority of Jesus Christ."

Edsel Crawford of Royalston, Vt., was the guest of Myron Gifford. Bill Fulton, Joe Bevins, Curt Hamilton, Bob Knuemper and Earle Ryder were also noted among those present.

Gen. Robert E. Bushnell will be the speaker, in the main auditorium of the church.

monkeys?", for instance. There were many requests for material on metal, iron, steel, aviation and shipbuilding industries.

During 1941, 296,254 books were circulated. Of these, 33,000 were books on sociology, which includes social conditions and government, and reflected a roused interest in these subjects.

Pamphlets have become more and more an important source of information. In the pamphlet file at the library there are approximately 3533 pamphlets and these are in frequent use. The Advocate has been indexed each week as it has been issued so that information on any news can be readily located.

There are 800 more books in the library than there were a year ago and during the year, 1880 new borrowers have registered. Of these, 1087 are adult and 783 juvenile.

The Dallin Branch reported that the reference work done by High School pupils had increased and that junior high and grade school pupils were learning the use of reference books.

Mrs. Spofford said with regard to the East branch, "But for the faithfulness and willingness of Miss Eva Smith, branch librarian, in making use of very inadequate equipment and doing what she can with it, the results would be much less satisfactory." What is really needed, she added, is a library similar to the Dallin Branch at the Heights.

The total expenditure for the year was $34,405.81. There was turned back to the town $2,224.40 from fines and $120.08 from other sources.

Indo-China Missionaries At Heights Baptist Sunday

Rev. and Mrs. I. R. Stebbins who with their family of six children were compelled to leave French Indo-China and who recently arrived in the United States, will tell the story of the Japanese occupation of that country on Sunday evening in the Arlington Heights Baptist church, according to an announcement by the pastor, Rev. Walter Bridge.

This outstanding missionary family is well known in New England, and has served a number of terms under the Christian and Missionary Alliance Board. Since the situation of the warring nations is now focused in the Pacific, this up-to-date information is very timely. The church orchestra directed by Cecil Batchelder will play a program of gospel medleys, and Miss Irene Sanger, soprano soloist of Waltham will render a group of solos. The service which is scheduled for 7:00 p. m. is open to the public who are cordially invited.
